ABOUT ME

I am a final-semester Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) student looking to gain hands-on experience and apply my academic learning through an internship opportunity. During my studies, I have developed a solid understanding of management, marketing, finance, and organizational behavior, which I am eager to utilize in a professional setting.

I am an enthusiastic learner with strong problem-solving and analytical skills, combined with a team-oriented mindset. My involvement in coursework and projects has helped me build effective communication and leadership abilities, enabling me to adapt to diverse and dynamic environments.

I am motivated to acquire practical knowledge, contribute to organizational growth, and further develop my skills as I prepare to begin my professional career.
